Red Hook: Stunning! A Tranquil Hilltop Retreat with Views

Privately sited on a hill overlooking a view of the Taconic Hills, this architect-designed 3-bedroom residence was inspired by the lines of the Hudson Valley's classic Carriage Houses. An impeccably styled home that combines contemporary design with the warmth of a country home. A light and spacious home with a dramatic Great Room, impressive with its soaring ceiling, striking wood beams, cupola skylight and custom windows and doors that bring in light and showcase the natural beauty of the 66 forested acres surrounding the house. The 66 acres of maintained forested land are currently used as walking and riding trails. This pristine land is protected with a non-build conservancy that is renewable. This program offers a signif cant tax reduction benef t.It's gracious country living surrounded by nature and privacy on top of the hill and close to Rhinebeck.
