Red Hook: Custom-Designed Modernist Home with Views Onto Nature

Meander through the woods to this privately sited singular residence - A Sculptor's Modernist home nestled within nature. Features include 2-story glass walls, gleaming poured concrete floors, rich red cedar, light blonde maple, a glass stair tower, and roof deck. Here is plenty of room for gatherings, personal quietude and inspiration. Radiant floors retain even temperatures. The separate 1,000-square-foot heated studio provides ample opportunity for creative exploration and expression or a private home office. A unique country home, photogenic in every season, every time of day. A rare first offering.
